

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

Nabweru is a town located in the Central Region of Uganda, specifically in the Wakiso District. Here's some general information about Nabweru:

Geography and Location

Nabweru is situated approximately 15 kilometers (9 miles) north of Kampala, the capital city of Uganda. The town is nestled in the Nakaseke-Nabweru valley.

Demographics

As of the 2014 census, the population of Nabweru was approximately 7,300 people. However, the population has likely grown since then due to urbanization and migration.

Economy

Nabweru's economy is primarily driven by:

1. Agriculture: The town is surrounded by fertile land, making agriculture a significant sector. Residents grow crops like maize, beans, and vegetables.
2. Trade: Nabweru has a bustling market where locals sell produce, handicrafts, and other goods.
3. Services: The town has a growing service sector, including hotels, restaurants, and shops.

Infrastructure

Nabweru has basic infrastructure, including:

1. Roads: The town is connected to Kampala and other surrounding towns via paved roads.
2. Education: There are several primary and secondary schools in Nabweru.
3. Healthcare: The town has a community health center and several private clinics.
4. Water and Sanitation: Nabweru has access to piped water and basic sanitation facilities.

Challenges

Despite its growth and development, Nabweru faces challenges like:

1. Rapid urbanization: The town's population is growing rapidly, putting pressure on infrastructure and services.
2. Environmental degradation: The surrounding wetlands and forests are under threat from human activities like agriculture and urbanization.
3. Limited economic opportunities: Many residents lack access to formal employment and rely on informal sector activities.

4. Nabweru also faces a challenge of lack of good education facilities, and this is because of high levels of poverty.

5. There's also high levels of crime rates in Nabweru town